Dear Community Partner,

Imagine being 33 years old and being told you have cancer, again, for the third time in your young life. Except now, at this moment you have a wife, two children under the age of 5, and just started a brand new job. Your treatments require you to miss work and you are still in the probationary period excluding you from insurance benefits.

Scott Schoenthal is a husband, father, son, brother, brother-in-law, uncle, friend to many, and graduate of Tullahoma High School. He is a survivor, and a fighter. But to continue that, he needs our help to keep the stress of life down as much as possible.

There are unknowns to plan for, medical bills, household expenses, and necessities for his children that need to be covered. Please join us in Scott Schoenthal's Circle of Love as we try to unite and help offset these expenses so Scott can focus on fighting a HARD fight.

As part of the Tullahoma Community, we are currently planning a RunWalk'n'Roll to be held at the THS track on Saturday, November 30th. This will be an exciting event that people of all ages and ability will be able to participate in. All proceeds from this event will go directly to Scott Schoenthal's Circle of Love.

We are asking local businesses to sponsor the event. A minimum $100 donation will secure your business recognition on the back of the t-shirt that each participant will receive. Additionally, any and all donations will be greatly appreciated.
